Valon Fogle Is Presented Pin For 25 Years Service With SW Bell

Valon Fogle has just completed one quarter of a century of service with the Southwestern Bell Telephone Company and was presented with his 25 year pin by Milton Fuqua, wire chief. More than eighteen of these years have been spent in Cameron.

Fogle started in 1929 as a groundman, doing construction work. In 1932 he moved to Temple, working as a repairman until 1937 when he moved to Cameron.

He said that he has installed a good many of Cameron's near 2100 telephones and has, at some time or other, worked on nearly every one of them.

In June of 1942 World War II entered the picture and Fogle entered military service. His knowledge of telephone work and his leadership ability was soon recognized and in less than two months Private Fogle became Sergeant Fogle of the 97th Signal Company Batallion.

In October of 1945 Sergeant Fogle once more Cameron citizen Fogle. He found a lot of work to be done in the spreading network of telephones in Cameron. In the nine years that have elapsed Fogle has helped in the city telephone growth from less than 900 telephones to more than 2100 to date.

The Fogles are a telephone family, Mrs. Fogle being the chief operator the the Traffic Department.

Valon Fogle, along with Mrs. Fogle, was honered with a dinner party this week at Salado's Stage Coach Inn by Milton Fuqua, wire chief, and D. H. Turner, District Plant Superintendent of Austin.

Other guests will be Mrs. Fuqua, Mrs. Turner, Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Fogle and Mr. and Mrs. Millard Fincher.

Bob Abel Hands In Resignation To C of C Board

Robert "Bob" Abel presented a letter of resignation to Lewis McKee, president of the local Chamber of Commerce at their recent board of directors meeting.

His resignation will become effective January 1, 1955, so that he can assume the position of manager of the Atlanta, Texas Chamber of Commerce on that date.

Mr. Abel has been manager at the local office for the past 18 month, instigating many projects and making many friends during his term of service here.

In his letter Abel stated, "I sincerely appreciate the chance I have had to serve as your manager and for the friendliness that everyone has shown to me and my family."

The motion was made and voted unanimously that a strong letter of recommendation be written by the local board and sent to the Atlanta Chamber of Commerce.

McKee said that as yet no letters to prospective managers have been mailed and the board will probably hold off until the first of the year to make plans for a new manager.

Management Is Necessary For Winter Grazing

Livestock feeds and hays in 1955 are expected to cost Texas farmers about the same as this year.

Prices of high protein feeds will probably hold steady and the cost of cotton-seed meal probably will rise this winter an continue high into 1955, predicts John G. McHaney, extension agricultural economist. A rather marked difference in prices of individual feeds is on the '55 horizon.

By individual feeds the economist sees it this way: Shipments of hay to Texas will continue for the duration of the drouth. Hay supplies for the nation as a whole are above last year. But supplies in the Southwest are very short.

CORN.-The '54 corn crop does not meet total requirement and later in the marketing year, prices will probably rise above those of a year earlier.

SORGHUM GRAIN. The 8,900,000 acre harvest of grain sorghums this year in the U. S. was the third largest in history. With a normal growing season in '55 prices probably will not improve.

OATS AND BARLEY. Oat supplies are hear record levels. Prices for this commodity and for barley are expected to average lower than normal in relation to the price of corn. High production again this year paves the way to a depressed marke for oats next year.

The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Stratton, which has been in the Newton Hospital since birth, December 7, will be released today and is reported to be in perfect condition.

Nativity Scene To Be Presented By Baptist Church

For the second Christmas an outside Nativity Scene will be presented by the First Baptist church Dec. 20 through Dec. 28. The arrangement of the scene is under the direction of Misses Mary and Lois Randolph.

Display will show the Little Town of Bethlehem, the Angel, and the Star atop the Educational Building and to the West the approach of the Three Kings on camels. Below the angel the Manger Scene with cherubs over the Christ Child.

Out side the Manger, Mary and Joseph's donkey will be tied. And then the Shepherds will be seen on the hill-side watching their sheep and looking toward the Star in the East.

The public has been cordially invited to drive by and visit the Nativity Scene.

THOUGHTS OF CHRISTMAS
--by Rev. Leonard Buxkemper,

Assistant, St. Monica's Catholic Church, Cameron, Texas.

If a person from another planet came down to our earth at this time of the year, and saw all the merry making, all the decorations with which our streets, our stores, and our homes are decorated, the hum-drum of the mad Christmas rush, etc., this person would certainly ask, "What is going to take place?" And he would surely receive the answer, "Why, it's Christmas."

And if he queried, "What is Christmas?", more than likely this person would receive an answer something like this, "Why, it is the time of year when old acquaintances are remembered with cards when gifts are bought for closer friends, when the spirit of "giving" permeates the world."

But if he would happen upon a good Christian, he would receive an answer something like this, "It's a birthday party--the birthday of God-made-man--the birth of our Saviour; The birth of God in a lowly cave in the little town of Bethlehem, who was wrapped up in swaddling clothes by it's mother and placed in a "feed trough" known to us as a "manger" or "crib"."

By this time, our visitor should be thoroughly confused; and he would confess, "If that is the real meaning of Christmas, you don't show it. You can stand before the extravagant displays in the store windows, examine the modern greeting cards, or visit the parlors of many homes.. There you will see the Christmas of your world. Laughing Santas and snowbound scenes. Sleighs and reindeer, trees and tinsel and trimmings. Bells and balls. Tracks and trains. Stars on top of trees, but no crib beneath the trees, Shepherds and sheep on the hillsides, but not the Baby Good Shepherd they had come to adore. The signs read: Merry Christmas. But, there is no Mary and no Christ to be seen. Pitiable! Christ is forgotten. The birthday of Christ without Christ".

Our visitor would really be confused if he then walked along the highways and bi-ways and asked the mothers and fathers just two questions and then compared the results. The two questions: "Did you take your little child to see Santa Claus", and, "Did you take your little child to see Christ in the crib?"

This should certainly stir up in all of us a little resolution: Christ will have a crib in my home, and my family will visit the Christ-Child in our parish church.

CHRISTMAS
-by H. M. Bowley

We have reached the time of the year when thoughts of almost everyone, turn to Christmas.

Christmas time is the most important time of all the year to most people, and surely,it ought to be so, when we consider that Christmas commemorates the birth of the wonderful, wonderful Christ into the world. This wonderful Christ was not like other men, in that He did not come into existence on that first Christmas, but was one who was in existence with God, the Father, before the beginning of the world. In fact, God made the worlds by Jesus Christ, Heb. 1:2; Col. 1:16; John 1:10.

On the Divinity of Christ, and consequently on the Virgin Birth, hangs our eternal destiny. Only by faith in the blood of the Divine Son of God can we be saved. Then we see that the teaching concerning the Virgin Birth and the Divinity of Christ are Bible doctrines, and have been by all the early church and the great men of God since that time. The individual proof lies further in the fact that people who believe in the Bible doctrine of the blood and the Divinity of Christ, and who fulfill the other Bible requirements such as repentance and full surrender to Christ, are the only ones who get a real born-again experience (John 3:3) or a might change of heart. If we are in Christ, we are told in 2 Cor. 5:17, that we are a New Creature. No one can become a new creature if he rejects the blood, the virgin birth, of the Divinity of Christ, because he destroys the only bridge which leads to Christ and eternal life.

Yes, the birth of Jesus was an event of unmeasurable significance The busy world did not understand the importance of the little babe in the manger, but the angels who were greater in understanding sang "Glory to God in the highest and on earth peace, good will toward men".

Here is something for the skeptic to think about. Hosea prophesied 785 years before Jesus was born that He would be called out of Egypt. Then 43 years after that Isaiah prophesied that He would be born of a Virgin. Thirty two years later Micah told that He would be born in Bethlehem and 14 years after that Jeromiah foretold the weeping of the mothers when Herod killed all Bethlehem children two years of age or under, in his attempt to kill Jesus.

In the light of these facts can any sane man dispute the fact that the Bible is inspired and that all these prophets during a period of about 4000 years were moved to speak by God's Spirit?

Yes, it is well that we rejoice at Christmas time, but be sure that our rejoicing is in the wonderful Babe of Bethlehem! If you have not let Him into your heart, then do so now, and this will be the most wonderful Christmas you have ever known.

Legend has it that before the Crucifixion the berries of Christmas Holly were white instead of red as now.

"Bubba" Florida Celebrates His First Birthday

John Ausbon Florida, III, or rather "Bubba" celebrated his first birthday Saturday, December 11.

His birthday cake, lit with one candle which he blew out with the assistance of his father, resembled a miniature corral with gaily colored animals restrained by peppermint posts around the sides of the cake and a cowboy with lasso unfurled on top.

His mother and grandmother, Mrs. Verne Pentecost of Dayton, Texas assisted in serving refreshments.

Other out of town guests present were Bubba's grandfather, Verne Pentecost of Dayton, his aunts and uncles, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Pentecost, and Mr. and Mrs. Merle Fletcher and their daughter Charlotte Jane, all of Houston.

Marsha Denise, the new daughter of Mr. and Mrs. V. S. Christian of Rokdale. She was born the first day of December and weighed seven pounds and four ounces.

Cub Scouts Goodwill Projects Named At Christmas Party Friday Night

Cub Scout Pack 213 held their Christmas Party Friday night at 7:30 in Simon-George Memorial Hall with the assistant cub master William Voglesang opening the program with a Christmas welcome.

Theme of the evenings entertainment was "We'll Do Our Best".

The Christmas tree was competely bare except for lights at the beginning of the evening. Each Den supplied the decorations, which were ornaments made during the past month at their Den meetings and a very beautiful tree, fully decorated in true Christmas style was finally displayed.

All of the boys joined in the singing of Christmas carols followee by the Denner from each Den stepping forward and telling of the Goodwill Project his Den was responsible for this month.

Den I supplied a food basket for a needy family. Den II selected little Don Warren, a sick ten old boy, as an honorary member of their den. He will be presented a cap and scarf typical of cub scouts next week by the boys in the den. They also purchased a book "A Cub Scout At Last", which will be presented to the Cameron Public Library in hopes that all the young Cubs will be encouraged to come to the Library in 1955.

Den III furnished a basket of food for a needy family to aid through out the year. Den VI had as their project getting a basket of food for a needy family.

Santa was late for the party so awards were given by Edward Schiller, award chairman. Those receiving awards were Lee Bert Robinson and Ronald McWilliams, who were presented their Wolf Badge; James Pernice, awarded five silver arrows; Eugene Schattle, presented a silver and gold arrow point and Robert Lee Eickenhorst who received his one year service pin.

Then, while the boys were heartily singing "Santa Claus Is Coming To Town" old St. Nick appeared in person and distributed the gifts. Main presentations, of course was the assembly of happy, shining faces of little boys when their hand-made gifts were presented to their parents. Each Den Mother reported that they felt amply rewarded for their many hours of supervision which went into each gift.

Refreshments of cookies, punch and coffee were donated and served by mothers of each den.

A display, made by Assistant Den Mother Mrs. W. A. L. Robinson of Den II was the World Friendship Stocking. This was to dramatize Pack 213's goodwill toward Cub Scouts in less fortunate lands. The contributions amounted to $3.65, which will be sent to the World Friendship Service, Boy Scouts of America, New Brunswick N. J.

A rededication to cub scouts as they go forward was the closing ceremony by Voglesang.

The Old Church Clock

Do you remember the fable of the old church clock in an Old World village? Every New Year's Eve the clock stopped for one glorious moment . . . and then there was great rejoicing and outspoken wishes of good-will.

Do you remember the moment when school closed for the Christmas vacation and the wishes of good-will from the boys and girls? Now is the moment . . . as you read these lines . . . to thank you for your confidence, your co-operation and help this year. May the New Year be your happiest, healthiest and most successful.

LITTLE RIVER PHILOSOPHER AMAZED TO LEARN COLLEGE HEAD FEARS AN OVER-PRODUCTION OF GRADUATES

Editor's note: The Little Rive Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Little River is discussing education again this week, a subhead.

Dear editar:

While reading a newspaper I picked up in town yesterday about the results of the vote farmers delivered on cotton marketing quotas this week, as you know these quotas are voted on because farmers have produced too much cotton, I saw over on another page an article that revealed farmers ain't the only people who are over-producing.

Colleges are doing it now.

According to a college president the article was quoting, "American colleges may be turning out too many graduates."

This bowled me over. You mean to say colleges ain't no smarter than us farmers and are gonna have to have marketing quotas on graduates?

I kept on reading and got more amazed as I went. This college president added that "there is a real question as to our society's need for unlimited numbers of college graduates and its capacity to absorb them into the fields for which they may be trained."

You mean to say that college graduates are like bales of cotton, after you get so many there ain't no need for anymore? This seems to put a new interpretation on education, and Im looking forward to the time when all quota elections are combined and in one column on your ballot you vote for cotton limitations, for corn or maize or wheat limitations in another, for the size of the college crop in another.

This president even went on. He said that some educators feel that in the future large proportions of college graduates will have to be contnet with manual labor, and he reminded his listeners of the old saying that college ruins some otherwise good plow hands.

If we can produce too many college graduates, why cant we produce too many high school graduates? Too many grammar school graduates? Who thought up the idea of teaching people to read, anyway?

Sometimes college presidents leave me wondering, but I guess they could say the same for me.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

Today the world needs individuals and organizations prepared to meet the challenge of communism. As Girl Scouts American girls are prepared to do so, because they are imbued with the responsibilities and the privilege of following the promise and laws day by day, as best they can. Everyone realizes that this is not easy, even with no other challenge that the muman impulse to dodge responsibility and over look opportunity.

Communism challenges Scout beliefs in God and country. It twists the bright and shining traits of character that Scouts try to exemplify; honor, loyalty, usefullness, friendship, courtesy, obedience, trift and clean living.

Every Girl Scout in the United States has the job, as a growing citizen, of doing her part to meet the challenge of Communisum to our country and our way of life. She has many resources in doing so -- her family, her fellow citizens, the tradition of self-government, the religious and educational institutions that include her give security and support as free as the air she breathes. She recognizes, cepts and appreciates all this as she pledges allegiance to the Flag of the United States.

The Girl Scout knows that the badges for which she works are not awards or rewards but rather indications of competence in various areas of interest. Her experience in earning them not only enriches her own life and helpsher to participate more effeciently in various groups; it also paints the way to types of service that may be useful to her community in times of need.

Fight communism through the Girl Scouts and buy candies to replinish scout funds during the Candy Sale the scouts are sponsoring this month.

CHRISTMAS MESSAGE

Mark C. Magers, Pastor,
First Methodist Church.

May the readers of this page breathe deeply of the Christmas atmosphere of the season and rejoice in the fullness of God's blessings. May they carry the Christmas joy to others, so that there will be more people this year than ever before who will know the full and true meaning of God's wonderful gift. Our prayer for you is that Christmas of 1954 may be the most wonderful you have ever known and that its joys may be known by many who hitherto have been strangers to its blessings.

God gave His Christmas gift to the earth that it might know what His love would do for men ... filling them with joy, peace, brotherly kindness and love. Christ is the heart of Christmas, and these gifts are His blessings.

Christ was all that was needed to make Christmas, and therefore Christ was all that God gave. The world has made some contributions toward making Christmas a féstive occassion. "The Lutherans gave us the tinseled tree; the Catholics gave us the Carols; the Dutch, Santa Claus; the Jews, candles; the English the Yule log; the Pagans from the north gave us the Christmas wreath; the French, the hanging stocking; the Italians the candy; and the Germans the Gift Exchange idea". The result now is that Christmas has need of but one more gift ... that is you. Give yourself to make the world better and to know the Heart of Christmas.

May God's wonderful peace abide upon you as this day you accept God's gift to make life rich, and full, free.
